

NCLC Repploy program Training & workshops calendar

Term 1 January 30th – March 31st

Individualised workshops or program pathways offered

Professional workshops Designed to enhance positive interactions for carers, support workers, teachers, case managers and disability sector students and professionals.	Employment workshops	Schools and Education Identified for supporting individuals beginning to disengage from the education system.	Social support and community inclusion Social skills workshops for individuals requiring support in day to day interactions.
Identifying interventions when working with people on the autism Spectrum and associative behaviours Teaching individuals with ASD and Co morbid diagnosis.- Supporting classroom inclusion	Understanding workplace requirements This program is supported by the Victorian Government  Employment awareness and application process Full Fee Navigating the interview process Full fee Employers – Understanding the hidden language of ASD for employers	 22129VIC Certificate I in Transition Young adults transitioning from final year of education to employment or further study. <small>Education- Special development Schools</small> 	Building interactions –Communication, accepting others, tolerance, setting boundaries, friendships and relationships Behavioural ownership – Rigid thinking, problem solving, honesty, responsibility and positive characteristic traits. Self-awareness – emotional and self-regulation, trigger awareness and management	Community inclusions Social networking, making connections, Independent travel, problem identification and resolution. Communication – Assertive Communication, self-advocacy, boundaries and expectations, confident interactions, understanding sarcasm and idioms.

At NCLC Repploy program all courses are formulated to promote self-awareness and confidence for community, education and employment participation.

Contact our consultant team for bookings and dates. Ph. (03) 9704 7388

www.narreclc.net.au